SPRINGFIELD MASS

CADUCEUS

Volume 45, 1970

The staff of the 1970 Caduceus ascertained that the song "Aquarius" best embodies the now generation at the High School of Commerce. The attitudes of love and friendship that prevail at Commerce are truly representative of the "Age of Aquarius." We, therefore, present to you, our classmates, a chance to relive your days at our school through the pages of this book and to realize the impact of those days on the Age of Aquarius . . .

High School Of Commerce

415 State Street

Springfield, Massachusetts

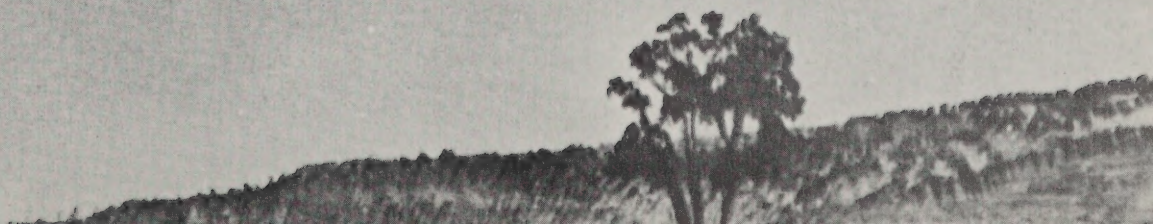

*When the moon is in the seventh house,
And Jupiter aligns with Mars,
Then peace will guide the planets,
And love will steer the stars —*

*This is the dawning of the age of Aquarius,
Age of Aquarius, Aquarius, Aquarius.*

*Harmony and understanding,
Sympathy and trust abounding,
No more falsehood or derisions,
Golden living dreams of visions,
Mystic crystal revelations,
And the minds true liberation,
Aquarius, Aquarius.*

PRINCIPAL

ADMINISTRATION
and faculty at the High School of Commerce work diligently to provide students with as many academic challenges and
extra-curricular activities
as possible.

Our dedicated staff
imparts knowledge to the students during the school day. With their assistance, the students have learned the importance of a well-rounded education.

N.H.S. And Student Council Best Represent The Words On Commerce's Emblem – Industry And Integrity

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The National Honor Society was established in honor of those students who have shown exceptional ability in scholastic achievements. New members are initiated into the organization in the month of October. Under the direction of Mrs. Griffin, This organization works to provide scholarship funds for those students who are worthy of them.

Money for the scholarships is obtained through various sales. The book stall is one of the main sources of revenue for this society.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Members of the Student Council are chosen representatives of the student body. This organization promotes the best interests of the school and provides Commerce students with active participation and formulation in school policies. The Student Court, which was recently activated, was the direct result of council encouragement.

Student Patrol

Keeps Tight Security

Members of the patrol are responsible for the security of of the building. They must maintain order in the halls by checking passes and by supervising the corridors during the lunch periods. Mr. Troy is the Chief advisor of the patrol. The captains for the patrol are recommended on the basis of their attendance records and good leadership.

The Many Organizations At Commerce Provide

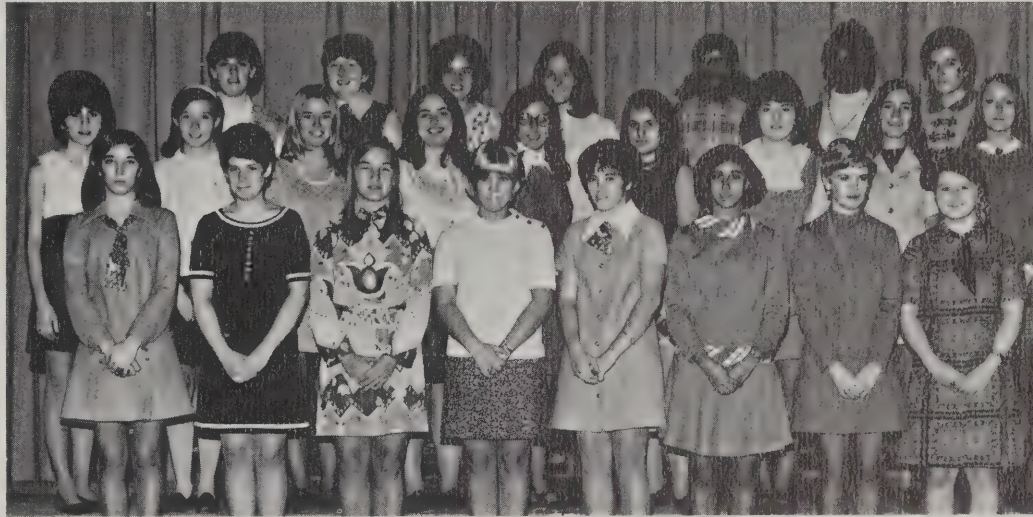

The Future Nurses Club is composed of students interested in a nursing career. During the year members visit various hospitals to gain better understanding of the medical profession. Under the direction of Mrs. Bennett, the girls hold numerous bake sales during the year in order to obtain money for scholarship funds.

Interested Students With Vocational And Cultural Enrichment

The Future Teacher's Club, advised by Mrs. Cabana and Mrs. Abbott, offers many chances for students to become acquainted with the teaching profession. On Orientation Day, which is held in October, various speakers come from local colleges to inform the students what is offered in each college. The Future Teacher's Club raises money for scholarships through various sales during the year. This club has been recognized by the State Teachers' Association.

The Happening . . . That Almost Didn't!

"The Age of Aquarius" was the theme for the "1970" version of "Capers." For the first time in two years, the performance was a combined effort of all three classes. Various singing and dancing groups spotlighted "Capers" along with an Afro-fashion show. Mistress and Master of Ceremonies were Doreen Shropshire and Gary Barrows. Directors of "Capers 1970" were: Miss Hogan, Mr. Tenczar, and Miss Currie. "Capers" has continued throughout the years to be a form of student entertainment performed by Commerce students.

Sanders And Caudle Bright Spots Of Track Season

Jamison Sanders, in the short sprints, and Frank Caudle, in the jumps and distance events, give Commerce's understaffed Track Team a few moments of glory.

Reno Focosi way ahead of the pack in the 400

Raiders Freshman Staffed Team Gains Experience In Off Year

Pitcher throwing the ball

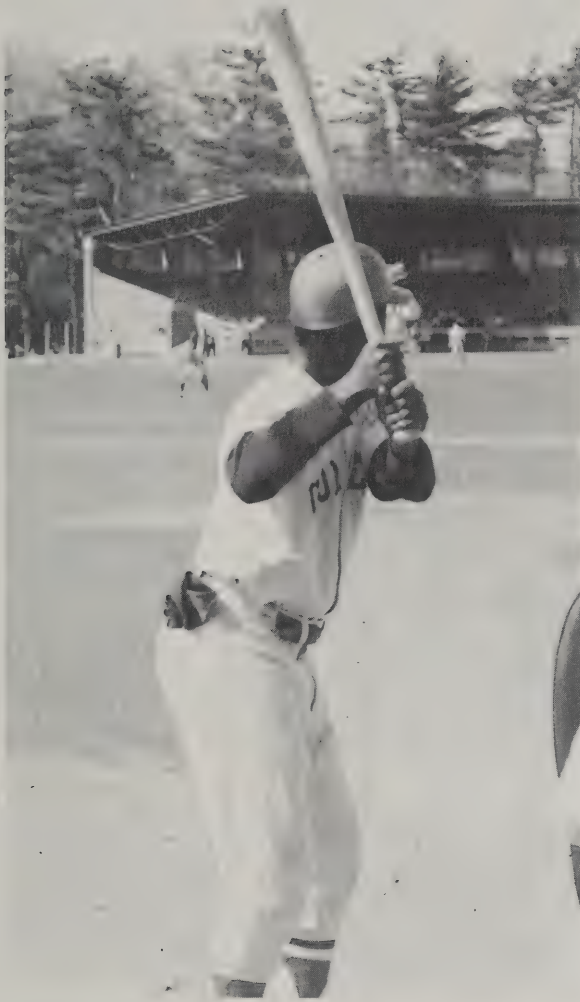

Commerce, in its rebuilding year, developed some very promising freshmen for the coming year. David Cassessi and Roy Engleston, freshmen, led the Commerce High hitters, each ending the year over .300. David Lyman and Donald Hess also showed much promise.

THE 1969 VARSITY BASEBALL TEAM: Front Row Roy Eggleston, Mike Scavotto, Dave Cassesse, Mike Krasner, David Sirois, Scott Beeman. Second Row Floyd Willis, Don Hess, Gordie Robinson,

Commerce Defeats Tech In Year's Big Upset

For the first time in 21 years, the Commerce Soccer team defeated the Tech Tigers with a score of 1-0. Many individual stars were featured throughout the season. Among them were Francis LaPointe, Clinton King, and Tom Charko. With this excellent teamwork and good coaching, the Red Raiders ended the season with a 3-8-3 record.

THE 1969 VARSITY SOCCER TEAM: Front Row: Robert Connery, Larry Corkeran, Jim Kennedy, Louie Carestra, Anthony Fugate, Mike Label, Anthony Gonzales, David Rivers. Second Row: Don Hess, Charlie Pappas, Gary Jalbert, Don Quinn, Bob Nyman, Samuel

Joe Vacirca And John Walters Highlight Commerce Football Team

The varsity football had a record of 2 wins and 6 losses. The Red Raiders had outstanding individual performers but no reserves to keep up a substantial attack. On offense John Walters rushed for over 900 yards this season. Joe Vacirca played outstanding defense throughout the year and is a possible candidate for the All Western Massachusetts Team.

Commerce player kicks off in one of their big games.

Understaffed Matmen “Pinned”

The Wrestling Team, lacking depth, had a disappointing season despite the efforts of Edward Choiniere, Marc Greenberg, and John DeVenuto, who performed well under adverse conditions.

Pouliot, Marc Greenberg, Robert Chandler, Edward Choiniere, John DiVenuto, Paul Dionisi.

Hoopsters Gain Momentum As Season Rolls Along

Fighting through a disappointing first half of the season, the Raiders have combined their skills and put together a winning streak of eight straight games. With outstanding performances from Nate Cooper, "T" Walters, Gene Veasley, George Clark, "Merf" Buchanan, and Charlie Williams, the Raiders have placed themselves in favorable position to win a bid to the Western Mass. and State Tournaments.

Charlie Williams, Robert Seymour, William Faison, Gary Barrows, Rick Yvon, Bronzell Graham, Gene Veasley, Nate Cooper, "Merf"

Buchanan, Leroy Starks, Eric Mooreland, and John Moynihan. In front Are: George Clark and "T" Walters.

Icemen Skate Their Way To Victorious Season

The Hockey Team, long a doormat for its Fay Division, have blossomed into one of the division's top teams. Currently, the Raiders are in second place, five points behind the leading Easthampton team. In its encounters with the leader, Commerce has lost to Easthampton 3-1, 5-4, and tied 1-1 showing they can stay with the best. The teams successful season can be attributed to the teamwork and spirit of all the players.

Second Row: standing Manager Randy Brusso, Coach Jeff Burgess, Craig Vandermyn, Bob Nyman, Dave Sirois, Rich Beem, Captain Don

The Drill Team is a colorful group of precision marchers whose function is not only to inspire the various sport teams to action but also to take part and bring to public notice the "esprit de corps" of the High School of Commerce student body.

The girls are selected from many auditions and are judged on poise, stability, and rhythm. These selectees are chosen by impartial judges outside of Commerce.

“Spirit” Inspired By H.S.C. Cheerleaders

Outstanding talent, leadership, and friendliness characterized the HSC cheerleaders this year. The cheerleaders were an important asset during basketball season when the “no spectators” ban was initiated. The cheerleaders organized rallies and helped inspire our athletes on to victory.

Try-outs for the Varsity Squad are held in the spring, and are judged by former cheerleaders and women specialized in this field.

“GIVE ME A C . . .”
